

TOIL OREGON

2017 ROSÉ OF PINOT NOIR | Willamette Valley

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

From the markedly aromatic 777 clone of Pinot Noir, this gorgeous, salmon-colored rosé has an enchanting nose of guava, strawberries, roses, and peaches. On the palate, this wine is dry with a delightful richness and a long, refreshing, acidic finish. Since the 2016 release was received so positively and sold out in a flash, we made a few more cases this year. So, if you liked last year's release, you'll love the 2017!
